

REMOTE LEARNING

Where shall we go today?

In week 3 of the National Restrictions, we wanted to share with you some links to online resources to support learning as well as suggestions to take a break from screen time. We know how tough it can be to keep engaged and motivated – we cannot thank you enough for all you are doing to support your children's learning. Remember the more we stay at home the sooner we will all be back in school safely. That day cannot come soon enough for us all.

Lockdown Learning with BBC Bitesize A range of programmes for primary and secondary pupils ranging from Celebrity Supply Teacher to BBC science and factual programmes	National Geographic NatGeo Kids Wealth of resources and amazing facts for the curious mind!	STEM Learning STEM education focuses on science, technology, engineering and maths. Some great resources for all ages to support home learning.
Google Earth Voyager Use the Voyager tool to explore the wildlife of Africa or Bald Eagles in live streams. Visit Astonishing Caves or Clouds from Space.		The National Marine Aquarium Every Friday during lockdown, you can tune into two special shows exploring themes such as underwater volcanoes, looking after the oceans, ocean mysteries.
The Skills Toolkit One for Parents and Carers. Maybe you'd like to learn a new skill. Here you will find free courses you can undertake in one hour per week	Duolingo Fancy learning a new language?	The Wildlife Trust Webcams Watch wildlife on webcams....puffins, peregrines, seals, badgers and more!

	Take part in the Big Garden Birdwatch		Go on a Scavenger Hunt
Any budding authors? Enter a writing competition.	Take a break from the screen and learn offline! Remote learning doesn't just occur online. What are you doing at home to take a break from the screen? We would love to hear from you and share your activities across our Pathfinder Community! Send us a photo....draw a picture....write a message....show us how you take a break. Send to office@pathfinderschools.org.uk		Get the Lego out...can you do the 30 day challenge?
	Explore Rothwell 	Make a smoothie	Run, ride a bike, walk, ramble!
Create a family scrapbook	Hold a family quiz		Journaling is a well-known stress reliever. Check out: Journaling for kids Journaling for Teens

Remote Learning: Tips for Parents and Carers

At Pathfinder Schools, our overarching principle for remote learning is that our children remain connected with their school community and learning continues.

During remote learning Pathfinder Schools staff will:

1. Endeavour to connect with their class every day online/as per class timetables;
2. Ensure that their class has a clear timetable and structure for their day;
3. Ensure that their class has access to new learning connected with their prior knowledge;
4. Ensure that their class has access to consolidation materials where they can practise and apply their previous learning;
5. Assess work and provide feedback;
6. Be proactive in supporting all pupils to actively engaging with the remote learning materials.

